

TIPS FOR CHOOSING THE RIGHT WORK DESK

A work desk can have a profound impact on the quality of work done and time spent on a project. It is important to choose a work desk that is comfortable and ergonomic for maximum productivity.

Following are some considerations for making the right choice:

- Identify your needs i.e. computer work, writing, studying, etc.
- Your work habits i.e. long sittings and tools to be used.
- Amount of space available in the room
- Amount of storage needed in the form of drawers and shelves
- Affordability, style and quality
- Ergonomics i.e. leg space, height of the desk, approach to tools and more
