

Understanding Types of Lighting For Your House

When choosing lighting for your home, the options are endless.

Here is a brief guide to help you get started:

1 Ceiling Lighting

- Chandeliers and pendant lights are common types of ceiling lights.
- Choose the type of ceiling lighting based on height & area of the room.
- Ceiling lighting can be used as main lighting in the center of a room or to add focus on an area such as dining table.

2 Lamps

- Floor, table, & desk lamps are different types of lamps available in the market.
- Floor lamps can be used to light up a corner or as an element of design.
- Table & desk lamps are used as task lighting.

3 Wall Lighting

- Wall lighting can be differentiated into sconces & wall pendants.
- Single lamp or multiple lamp wall lights can be chosen depending on area of the wall.
- Wall lights can be used as main source of light or accent lighting in the room.

4 Vanity Lighting

- It is used as task lighting to create a focus in the vanity area.
- Choose vanity lighting as per area of the room.
- Vanity lighting can either be used alone or in coordination with wall or ceiling light.
